

General terms and conditions of delivery

In all cases in which we act as offeror or supplier, our offers, assignments given to us and agreements concluded with us are subject to the following terms and conditions.

For further information, refer to https://www.auma.com/nl_NL/contact/algemene-voorwaarden

In the event of any conflict between our conditions and your purchasing conditions, our conditions shall prevail.

In addition to and prevailing over any set of general terms and conditions, the following applies.

Bank guarantee

We are only obliged to provide a bank guarantee if written agreements have been made before concluding the agreement, as referred to in the first paragraph above.

Penalty clause

A penalty or discount clause only applies if it is included in the assignment to, or in the agreement with, AUMA Benelux B.V. is stated and the latter has expressly agreed to this by placing a signature.

Non-competition

We cannot agree to any non-compete clauses.

Guarantee

AUMA Benelux B.V. provides warranty on AUMA products/parts for a period of 24 months after dispatch and, in the case of services, 12 months after execution. The warranty is void if the instructions provided by AUMA Benelux B.V. regarding transport, storage, and commissioning (see operating instructions) and the operating instructions are not followed. This warranty obligation also lapses if repairs or modifications are made by the client or third parties during this warranty period without the prior consent of AUMA Benelux B.V.

Liability

Any liability of AUMA Benelux B.V. towards the client or third parties, for whatever reason, will always be limited to the monetary value of the relevant order. AUMA Benelux B.V. is not liable to the client for business losses, lost savings, and/or lost profits. The client indemnifies AUMA Benelux B.V. against any consequential costs of any nature and against any further liability to third parties.
